

OCTOBER 6 – 16, 2006

CHILE: Santiago, Valparaíso Wine Region and vicinities

ARGENTINA: Buenos Aires and vicinity

CHILE-ARGENTINA CULTURAL & TRADE MISSION

Paulina Biggs Sparkuhl, Honorary Consul of Chile in Nevada, has joined together with the Chilean and Argentine Embassies to invite you to be among the first to take advantage of newly developed trade opportunities and enhanced diplomatic ties between United States, Chile and Argentina.

Hon. Consul Ms. Biggs Sparkuhl, Argentine Ambassador Dr. José Bordón and Mrs. Bordón.

ARGENTINA has leapt from financial collapse to unprecedented success. The government has shown the world its ability to sprint to recovery with strong 9% annual growth for four years, further enhanced by extraordinary debt repayment. Thirty-nine million call this country of 1.4 million square miles home. Like her neighbor Chile, Argentina's workforce is fed by an educated, multi-lingual populace with a literacy rate exceeding even that of the US. The growth opportunities in doing business with Argentina simply overshadow those of any other Nevada Chief of Diplomatic Protocol Gayle Anderson, Chilean Ambassador Dr. José Bianchi and Consul Paulina Biggs Sparkuhl.

CHILE enjoys the most advanced economy in Latin America. A sophisticated network of trade treaties and top notch banking & infrastructure have fed an exponential growth in the economy for several years. A middle class of millions thrive in this diverse country which stretches about the same distance as from the tip of Baja to Alaska. Port proximity and an educated workforce have made Chile the gateway to investment in South America.
